

Stronger Together

Denver Families for Public Schools and RootED Denver are bringing our organizations together!

Beginning in January 2025, our combined organization will continue under the name Denver Families for Public Schools. Together, we will build on our collective strengths to deepen our commitment to ensuring high-quality public schools that serve all families in Denver.

Why We're Joining Forces

Our decision to unite is rooted in a history of shared work and vision for public education in Denver. By combining the grassroots organizing and leadership development of Denver Families for Public Schools with RootED's community-driven partnership and investment work in DPS schools, we'll increase our ability to advocate for equitable, high-quality public schools that are responsive to the needs of Denver's diverse communities.
